

Walthausen Select Value Fund

September 30, 2015
Third Quarter

Investment Objective:

The Walthausen Select Value Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy:

The Fund invests primarily in common stocks of small and mid capitalization companies defined as those with a market capitalization of $7 billion or less at the time of purchase. Normally, the Fund will invest at least 80% of its net assets in small and mid capitalization stocks.

Investor Profile:

The Fund may be suitable to investors seeking long-term growth of capital, who can tolerate the risks associated with investing in small and mid capitalization common stocks. The earnings and prospects of these companies are generally more volatile than larger companies.

The Russell 2500 Value Index measures the performance of small cap value segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 2500 companies with lower price-to-book ratios and lower forecasted growth values.

FUND INVESTMENT STYLE

The Fund's investment advisor searches for securities across the broad universe of small capitalization companies, using a proprietary scoring model to identify companies that are trading at a discount to intrinsic value. Research is generated internally, avoiding external sell-side analysis. The two critical areas for analysis are the cash flow statement and balance sheet which allow an evaluation of a company's sustainable free cash flow. This cash flow can be used to invest and expand, acquire other companies, reduce debt, buy in stock or pay dividends. Investment decisions are made on the basis of whether the company is selling at a discount valuation, management has an achievable plan for building shareholder value, and their track record suggests they are capable of implementing the strategy.
